OUR BIG STORY

HAPPY BIRTHDAY! FREEDOM AND ROAM UGANDA

FARUG celebrates another year of existence.

On the 4th of July 2003, FARUG was born! As our slogan goes, FARUG since its inception has continued to serve her community through creating visibility, addressing issues that affect LBQ womxn as well as advocating for their rights. The broken chains are witnessed through the number of LBQ womxn coming out to address issues affecting them, the increasing number of partners from the mainstream movements, the number of talents discovered, friends and funders giving a hand of support, activities implemented that have changed the lives of many LBQ womxn lives, to mention. This milestone can be evidenced by visiting our social media platforms. Please continue donating and supporting our work. Shared below was the message for our reborn day;

“Happy Birthday to us!!

It is with great pleasure that we are here as Freedom and Roam Uganda to celebrate another year of our existence. We are grateful for surviving all the challenges throughout was the last 18 years as those have served to make us stronger and wiser in our resolve to serve and fight for the rights of Lesbian, Bisexual and Queer womxn. Today, in spite of the difficulties we are facing due to the COVID-19 pandemic, we renew our vow to do the aforementioned as we continue to hope for a world where being an LBQ womxn is normal. #farug@18

With support from Civil Rights Defenders, we have continued to discuss different topics on situations that have faced LBQ persons during the pandemic. Among these were the increasing cases of drug and substance abuse, Intimate Partner violence, menstrual hygiene, and many more. The issues have been broadly dissected and the information is to help LBQ womxn thrive in this challenging pandemic situation. Shared below are some links that you can tune in to listen

This will create a friendly and accessible environment for LBQ women in accessing SRHR services.

MENTAL HEALTH
INFORMATIVE
CONVERSATIONS

We summarised the month of August with an informative dialogue through sharing about drug and substance abuse. This was a result of the reported increase in drug and substance abuse among LBQ womxn and LGBTIQ community at large. The discussion conducted through zoom included participants from across East Africa and partner organisations like WERO, Rella Women Foundation, Ice breakers Uganda, to mention.

This event was a key learning and healing session for many queer womxn and LGBTIQ persons struggling with drug and substance addictions.

We ended the day celebrating the birthday of our clinic manager

The agile policy has played a big role in bringing together stakeholders in order to realise a common goal. Our programs manager Gloria Mutyaba was one of the main facilitators during this convening.

INFORMATION ABOUT SPYWARE.

Spyware is malicious software designed to enter your device, gather data about you, and forward it to a third party without your consent. Spyware can infect devices, allowing operators to extract messages, photos, and emails, record calls and secretly activate microphones and cameras. Although most people are unlikely to be targeted by this type of attack, here are still simple steps you can take to minimize your potential exposure.

CELEBRATING EID AL ADHA

FARUG celebrated this day by wishing all Muslim friends and members a joyous and blessed Eid. "We would like to wish our Muslim friends a joyous and blessed Eid al-Adha". This special message was further addressed to those who were spending the holiday separated from family and friends due to the pandemic.

BISEXUAL WEEK

Being Bisexual does not indicate confusion about what one wants, it simply means that one is attracted to both male and female genders. To recognise bisexuals from the globe, the bisexual week was observed on 16th -23rd September. FARUG observed this week through celebrating all bisexual womxn in the country.

NON-BINARY AWARENESS WEEK.

FARUG dedicated that week to those who do not fit within the traditional gender binary or put simply, those who do not exclusively identify as a man or a womxn, or who may identify as both a man and a womxn or may fall outside of these categories altogether. To all the non-binary people out there, we see you, we love you, we recognize you and we respect you.

TRANSITIONING TO ANOTHER LIFE

On that fateful day, we woke up to sad news about the untimely death of one of our members. Suzie was a very vibrant hardworking and promising young lady who believed in happiness and self-care as pillars of mental and spiritual wellbeing. She portrayed this by her constant jolly appearances that showed a promising future. We are sorry that you never lived to witness this but we are strong that you are in a better place. Rest well, Suzie!

On 30th July we were saddened by the untimely death of another member Amiya Sasha. She was also young and vibrant with a high sense of humor and a kind heart. Rest well, Sasha. You will always be missed.

THE SEXUAL OFFENSES BILL

On 17th August the president of Uganda declined to sign the sexual offenses bill. The homophobes targeting punishing sexual minorities wanted the president to sign it into law. There are many clauses in this bill that affect LGBTI persons and the punishments associated with them are lifetime arrests. This was a reliever for the LGBTQ community in Uganda although this did not stop the hate crimes towards Sexual and gender minorities.

OBSERVING THE INTERNATIONAL YOUTH DAY

August 12 was international youth day. We recognised this day through a message as quoted below; “For the young queers, those in the closet, or out, those questioning your sexuality. Remember sexuality is fluid and gender is socially constructed! Happy International Youth Day.”

REMEMBERING REV. PHUMZELLA

On hearing the sad news, the day never became the same. July 6th you transitioned to another life.

Reverend Phumzile Mabizela was the Executive director of INERELA. She was an ally of FARUG and played a very big role in empowering LGBTI persons to take up and be included in interfaith spaces.

As FARUG, we thank you for spreading love and faith wherever you went. Your legacy still lives on. May her soul rest in peace. Till we meet again!

THE GHANA LGBT BILL

Lawmakers in Ghana proposed a new bill that sought to criminalize LGBTQ+ persons and activism. The law also proposes a ten-year jail sentence for what they have termed as "propaganda, advocacy for LGBTQI+ and related activities"

This bill, if passed into law will make it impossible to even support or campaign for LGBTQ+ rights online like social media platforms, there will be the prohibition of LGBTQ+ activities. The bill also mentions that anyone who engages in sexual intercourse with a person of the same sex commits a second-degree felony and is liable to a term of not less than three years and not more than five years in jail.

This same bill would threaten fight on HIV/AIDS, as said by UNAIDS

If passed, this legislation will drive LGBT+ people further away from HIV prevention, care and treatment services and endanger the advances made against the HIV epidemic in the last decade.

"This proposed legislation is a gross violation of the human rights of Ghana's lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender community, who already face high levels of violence, abuse, stigma and discrimination,"

We thank you for being great partners, allies, friends, well-wishers, and members of FARUG. We further remind and encourage you to continue following the presidential directives during the covid-19 pandemic through washing your hands, wearing your mask and keeping social distance to prevent contracting this virus.

We continue to look forward to a world where being an LBQ womxn is normal
